City Hall set to reopen for normal business hours on Tuesday, January 3, 2023

[Duluth, MN] Duluth City Hall is set to reopen for normal business hours on Tuesday, January 3, 2023.

City Hall has been closed to staff and the public due to a water leak, which has now been resolved. City Hall will remain closed to staff and the public for the remainder of today, Friday, December 30, 2022 and will reopen after the observed holiday on Monday pending any unforeseen circumstances.

City staff who are able will continue working remotely to serve our residents. Please visit the City's website to find contact information and/or online resources you may need: www.duluthmn.gov

The City thanks its residents for their patience during this time. Additionally, all City facilities will be closed to the public in observance of the New Year's Day holiday on Monday, January 2, 2023.
